Ms. Jerri New
Canadian Director
OPEIU
2nd Floor, 4595 Canada Way
Burnaby, BC V5G 4L9

Dear Jerri:

In April and May 2004, I forwarded checks to you payable to the Canadian National Committee as a "national subsidy" grant. On June 12, 2004, I sent you a letter explaining why there would be no "national subsidy" grant for that month.

Once again, the OPEIU will not provide a "national subsidy" grant for the month of July 2004. A review of our records for the month reveals that General Fund disbursements exceeded per capita tax receipts. Canadian Local Unions reported on 17,957 members with a total of $126,875.00 in receipts payable to the General Fund. We estimate delinquencies for the month in the amount of $145,155.42 due from Canadian Local Unions. Please use your office of Canadian Director to collect all delinquencies due to the International Union.

Please be reminded that the possible granting of a "national subsidy" does not extend beyond the month of July 2004. Thereafter, a "national subsidy" grant may or may not be given at the discretion of OPEIU. The amount of any grant that may be given in the future may be increased or decreased as determined by the OPEIU.

Very truly yours,

Michael Goodwin
President
